

Football Booster Club Membership Form LBJ High School

To the LBJ Football Community:

The LBJ High School Football Booster Club is a non-profit organization comprised of parents, alumni, coaches, teachers, school administrators, and community members.

The purpose of the Booster Club is to promote the Football Program at LBJ High School by:

- Fostering school spirit and supporting activities related to the LBJ Football Program;
- Communicating activities related to the Football Program;
- Sponsoring fund raisers in support of the needs of the Football Program as determined by the AD/Head Football Coach;
- Obtaining support and sponsorship of the Football Program;
- Recognizing players and coaches as appropriate and authorized by LBJ;
- Sponsoring pre-season and post-season functions
- Operating within the guidelines of the University Interscholastic League (UIL), the Austin Independent School District (AISD), LBJ and the Booster Club Bylaws.

Through memberships, donations and corporate sponsorship, the LBJ Football Booster club has supported player pre-game meals, spirit activities, annual football program, purchase/repair of coach's equipment, player letter jackets and end of season banquet.
